1 match for “a must for the travel technology community”TRAVDEX: The Travel Technology Think Tank & Conference

The search for the future of travel – a select group of travel tech gurus explore the next era of travel distribution technology. May 3-4, 2005 in Dallas, TRAVDEX presents a pure travel technology program. Jam-packed collections of keynote addresses, one-on-one interviews, peer talkback, debates and case studies expose attendees to the biggest ideas, brightest minds, tested solutions and difficult lessons.

At TRAVDEX speakers take the stage and present their points of view. In 2005, we will thoroughly vet the intersection of the search revolution and travel technology.

1 match for “incredible value for sponsors and exhibitors”TRAVDEX: The Travel Technology Think Tank & Conference

TRAVDEX is designed specifically to create a high-energy networking atmosphere. The combination of a spectacular floor plan and creative exhibits gives maximum exposure to a coveted crowd.

The PhoCusWright team builds your exhibit, sets it up, and tears it down. The exhibit structure, furniture, services, technology, custom signage, and comprehensive conference passes are all included in the price. Leave that pop-up booth at home; all you need to do is concentrate on your leads and sell. info@travdex.com
